A love for youth and the development of their full potential was the primary motivating factor that inspired Mrs. Mary Lou Allison Gardner Little to organize Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. Young people today face challenges that could never have been imagined years ago, but such challenges provide the sorority with opportunities to carry on the vision of Little.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. believes in training young girls to be leaders in their own lives and their communities so they will make a difference. The sorority's motto of "Greater Service, Greater Progress" reflects its drive to train girls to serve their communities and to improve the quality of life for all. Girls are taught the importance of scholarship because, as Nelson Mandela said, "education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world".
